The Undertaker of Holly, Orleans county, N. Y., stated to me after he had opened the Casket containing the remains of my mother, after being transported from here, that the Undertaker at Paw Paw, Mich., had prepared them in the most skillful and approved manner; that they were in a perfect state of preservation, and everything in as good condition as though the work had just been performed. That of all the numerous bodies received in charge by him, he never saw one where every requisite had been more faithfully attended to. Mrs. F. C. THOMAS. 1416f is extended to all friends of education.

We saw a young chap enjoying a novel ride on our streets a few days ago. Judging from appearances he had a horse, a fine top carriage but no harness, and so he mounted his prancing pegasus, took the pole of the buggy in his hand and did his own riding and drawing all at the same time.

himself as the future Mrs. Oscar Wilde, was too utterly utter. Too many pills will some-Myron Hoskins of this village has improved the appearance of his pleasant home by treating his fences to a new coat of paint.

He has also done quite as much to beautify his farm two miles east of town, by painting his house and barn, and erecting a new windmill.

On Thursday of last week there fell a warm refreshing rain and vegetation looked vigorous and green, on Friday the wind was northerly and overcasts were in demand, on Saturday, May 6th, a cold drizzling rain all day and some snow. Michigan can beat the world on weather.

E. C. Reid late partner of Don. C. Henderson in the Allegan Journal, has commenced the publication of another republican paper at that place, called the Allegan Gazette, which is the outgrowth of the late unpleasantness at the Journal office. The paper is an eight column folio, and presents a very neat appearance.

On Saturday night last a horse, saddle and bridle were stolen from the barn of W. B.
Ward near Antwerp center. The horse was recovered the following day by Deputy Sheriff McCabe. He had evidently thrown his rider and escaped from him, or was turned loose by him after having been ridden to Glendale or vicinity. The horse when found was near Joseph Gilman's and had only the bridle on.

That old tumble-down house on the corner of Paw Paw and Niles Sts., owned by Mr.
Sheldon, has for years been an eye sore to the residents of that part of town. It is such no longer. The building was sold to J. W. Emery who proceeded to demolish it in good style. The now vacant corner is one of the finest building lots in town, and we hope to see a good residence erected thereon.

Mr. Zenas Rawson, so long and favorably known to our citizens, departed this life on Monday last at the advanced age of 89 years. He died on his old homestead at the residence of his son-in-law, Mr. Silas A.
Smith. Mr. Rawson was a veteran of 1812, and was noted for his strong convictions and firm adherence to his opinions. He was highly respected and leaves many warm friends to mourn his death.

We would call the attention of our readers to the advertisement in another column of the Acme Creamer and Butter Cooler. It is highly recommended by practical farmers and dairymen, who are using them and understand their merits. It is just what the farmers of this locality should have, as it will save labor, increase the quantity and improve the quality of their butter. This creamers is placed on exhibition at the store of Free & Martin, by Wm. Thayer and G.
W. Hunt, who are the agents for this locality.
Butter makers, call and see it.

The Spiritualists and Liberalists meeting at the Opera House in this village on Saturday and Sunday, was well attended. There were a large number of friends of the movement present from different parts of the county. The meeting was addressed by C.
B. Lynn, of Boston, and Mrs. E. C. Woodruff of South Haven. Mr. Lynn has frequently addressed similar meetings in this county, and is always greeted with an appreciative audience on such occasions. He is a fine talker and treats his subject and those who may differ with him in
